

Dr. Arvind Tiwari

Member

(To look into foreign affairs)

Researcher

Department of Design, Production and Management,

University of Twente, Enschede, The Netherlands

Phone Number: 0031-619328878

Email: A.Tiwari@ctw.utwente.nl

Dr. Arvind Tiwari was born on 24th of July 1975 at Adarsh Nagar, Sagerpali, Ballia (UP), India. He received his Bachelor and Master in Physics from Jamia Millia Islamia in 1996 and 1999. He received his second masters in microelectronics from Panjab university in 2002. After his brief stint at Institute of Technology and Management, Gurgaon, Haryana, he pursued his Ph.D. at Indian Institute of Technology Delhi. The focus of his research was the hybrid photovoltaic and thermal systems known as HPVT. He worked in BRCM as senior lecturer for one year before moving to Krishna Institute of Engineering and Technology (KIET). He has published 15 research papers in various international journals and conferences. He is currently involved in research in the field of solar energy and PV products at University of Twente, Netherlands.